LACH CIAL ZEMAKE,

Johnson Bans Secret Aid CIA By CIA to Private Units pect, saying he is from the Defense Department and explaining that he is concerned about

BULLETIN

President Johnson today ordered a ban on any secret financial support by the CIA er any other government agency of any educational or privale voluntary organizations. He promised "serious consideration" to move to set up a public-private mechanism to provide public funds openly for overseas activities of organizations adjudged deserving of public support.

By ROBERT WALTERS Star Staff Writer

The Central Intelligence Agency "is currently carrying on a fessors who cooperate on the major campaign within the U.S. basis of 'national interest,' steer-tudent's government is made of recruiting and, when necesing the agent to likely prospects among the students they know."

ary, blackmailing foreign stuamong the students they know."

ometimes up to $10,000 a year.

using six full-time agents work- The agent telephones the pros-s completed, is thrown into the ing out of regional CIA offices as "spies against their home-try. If the student seems reland."

the magazine's April issue. Ram- which the prospect is sized up. ly financing the U.S. National which the student is asked to Student Association.

dents studying in this country, enses." the magazine said "the agents." In receiving that money, the working the campuses operate tudent is required to sign a under a Defense Department eceipt, which is held as a cover. They carry Defense De- hreat in case he threatens to partment credentials issued un-ublicize the venture. der a pseudonym...the CIA works with foundations and pro-

See CIA, Page A-6 leal.

Continued From Page A-1 ing that he is concerned about to recruit the foreign students foreign students in this counceptive, an appointment is made The allegations are made in for a brief interview during parts last month touched off a | If that interview proves promajor controversy when it luctive, it leads to a series charged that the CIA was heavi-of additional meetings, during erform a small service and In its article on foreign stu- eceives $10 to $20 for "ex-

The magazine adds:

"Finally, the proposal to endents who are studying in this quoting a "source intimate with the CIA student recruitment operation," the magazine with the operation is conducted that the intelligence agency is in this manner.

> "If the student agrees, the agent then asks him to write out a contract in his own handwriting, and the agreement is irrevocably completed. Once a contract is signed, the student is hooked. He can be intimidated at any time by the threat of forwarding a copy of his contract to his embassy.'